ST. VINCENT COLLEGE

St. Vincent Abbey, Seminary and College in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, were founded in the year 1846 by the Rt. Rev. Archabbot Boniface Wimmer. To supply the want of priests in the New World, Father Wimmer conceived the project of founding a monastery of his Order, together with a seminary for the training of young men for the priesthood. King Louis I. of Bavaria, the Louis Mission Society, and many personal friends gave financial assistance. Accompanied by 18 candidates for the Order, some of whom had almost completed their ecclesiastical studies, he set out from Munich on the 25th of July, 1846, and arrived at St. Vincent on the 19th of October of the same year. He encountered great difficulties in the execution of his plans, but he met and surmounted them with that energy and perseverance which characterized his entire life. Such was the success of his labors that in 1855 the Holy See raised the monastery which he had founded to the dignity of an Abbey.

Students began to come from all quarters. Father Wimmer himself instructed them, being ably assisted by the young members of the Order whom he had trained. The teaching Faculty was greatly augmented and strengthened by the arrival of young men who had made complete courses of studies in European Universities, so that St. Vincent soon gained a wide reputation for the ability and tact of its Professors, and for the thoroughness and success of its methods of teaching.

The number of students increased from year to year. In 1849 there were only 13 names enrolled; in 1854 there were 90 students at the College; in 1865 their number had increased to 180; in 1870 we find 227 students in the various departments of the Institution. Since then the average attendance has been about 350.

By an Act of the State Legislature of the 18th of April 1870 the College was incorporated and empowered to confer academic Degrees.

Location and Surroundings

The tract of land upon which St. Vincent now stands was purchased by the Rev. Theodore Browers on the 16th of April 1790. It was then known as Sportsman's Hall. Father Browers was the first missionary priest of Western Pennsylvania and by selecting Sportsman's Hall as his place of residence he made it the centre of Catholicity for the western part of the State.

When Father Wimmer arrived with his colony in 1846, Bishop O'Connor of Pittsburg offered him this tract of land as the most desirable site in the diocese. Father Wimmer gratefully accepted the kind offer, for he saw at a glance that no more favorable location could be selected. The Abbey and College buildings have been erected upon a gentle elevation. The landscape surrounding St. Vincent is indeed beautiful. The most fertile valleys of Pennsylvania, the thickly wooded Chestnut Ridge stretching along the eastern horizon, undulating fields with primeval forests serving as a background — these are some of the charms of nature by which the student of St. Vincent is environed and inspired. The hand of man has not dared to destroy the natural beauties of our immediate vicinity. We are encompassed by coal-mines and coke-works, by steel-mills and glass-factories, but they are several miles away and do not mar the enchanting scenery which nature has thrown around our College home. On the contrary, ingenuity and assiduous labor have helped to make this an ideal garden of beauty. Spacious lawns, beds of flowers, blooming shrubbery, vines and ferns, and hundreds of ornamental bushes and shapely shade-trees have added to the charms which the Creator has showered with a lavish hand over the knoll that bears St. Vincent.

Buildings

The buildings are all of brick, with sandstone trimmings. The main College building faces the west and has a frontage of over 400 feet. It has three stories above the basement. All apartments are large and well ventilated, heated with steam and furnished with electric lights. On the first floor are the parlors, offices, and most of the class-rooms; the study-halls, the chapel, and some of the class-rooms are on the second floor; the third floor, throughout the entire length of the building, serves for dormitories. The south wing of the College is 200 feet long and four stories high. It contains the study-hall, class-rooms, and dormitory of the Seminarians; also the Natural History department, the physical and chemical laboratories, the infirmary, the apothecary, and the dining-halls.

The Gymnasium building was erected in 1894. It is 134 by 60 feet. For its purpose it is one of the best appointed buildings in the country. The cozy basement contains two bowling-alleys. The first floor is devoted to gymnastics and also contains two reading-rooms. The entire second story is devoted to music, drawing, and painting. The third story is the College Hall with a seating capacity of 1500 and a large stage, perfect in every detail. It is the largest and best equipped College Hall in the country and is used extensively for lectures, debates, elocutionary exercises, musical and dramatic entertainments, etc. An annex to the Gymnasium contains the bath-rooms.

Accessibility

St. Vincent College is rendered easy of access by the Pennsylvania Railroad passing through its lands. Beatty is the nearest station at which all local trains stop. Almost all through trains stop at Latrobe, which is only two miles distant from the College and forty miles east of Pittsburg.

Campus.

Campus

If there is anything that lends enchantment to a student's life and tends to lighten the burden and relieve the monotony of daily study, it is an inviting campus where he may find relaxation in healthful games and pastime-pleasures, and add to his moral and mental culture that physical development which will render him hale of body and rugged of constitution. The College play-grounds are admirably adapted to the attainment of these objects. They are so fashioned by nature and art as to render them a place of welcome to all students, howsoever varied their dispositions and inclinations may be. The grounds comprise twenty five acres, seven of which are a grove of primeval oaks, in the centre of which is a generous spring of purest water which has stood the test of ages. Circling paths wind beneath the shady trees. Five hand-ball courts are pleasantly located in the grove and afford many an hour of mirthful and invigorating exercise.

Five base-ball diamonds grace the campus and offer ample opportunities to the lovers of the great national sport, whilst games of a less violent nature have their allotted places. A large ice-pond and the Loyal Hannah close by are resorts of pleasure to the lovers of skating.

In wet weather and during the dreary months of winter, the students spend most of their recreation time in the Gymnasium, where they are in charge of a competent and careful instructor. Thus every possible advantage to build up and develop a strong and healthy constitution, which contributes so much to the happiness of man and to his utility to society, is offered to the student during his sojourn at College.

Discipline

Laws and regulations are essential to the well-being of every community. The State has its code of laws, the Church has its precepts, every home has its statutes, every society its constitution, every business firm its regulations, and every institution of learning must have its rules of conduct. In the moulding of a staunch, fearless, upright character, good traits must be encouraged and developed, vicious habits must be checked and eliminated, natural inclinations must be carefully directed or corrected. To the attainment of these ends it is very important that the relations existing between the students and Faculty of the College be not mistaken or misunderstood. Superiors and Professors mingle with the students not in the role of detectives and severe taskmasters, but rather in the capacity of true friends and wise moderators, whose only ambition is to secure the temporal and eternal welfare of their subjects and pupils.

The discipline at St. Vincent is strict, but not severe. It is enforced more by moral suasion than by forceful measures. No well disposed student, who realizes why he is at College, will find great difficulty in observing the following

Rules of Conduct

Students must always be obedient and respectful to the Officers and Professors of the College and observe habitual politeness towards one another.

During study-time and class-hours, going to and coming from the chapel and the refectory, in the dormitories and in the lavatory, the strictest silence and order must be observed.

The seats which the Officers or Professors of the College may assign to any one, whether in the study- or class-rooms, in the refectory or chapel, are never to be changed without special permission.

Students must always be where their respective duties require them to be. Standing about in the corridors during the hours of study or classes cannot be permitted.

No student is allowed to leave the College without the Director's permission.

All running and noisy plays within the house are strictly prohibited.

Students are not allowed to buy or sell any article of clothing, books, etc. without the Director's permission.

Students will be held responsible for any damage they may do to property.

Desks, beds, study- and class-rooms, the dormitories, the corridors, in fact, all apartments of the College, must always be kept clean and in good order.

Students missing any article must immediately apply to the Prefect or Director; late information will be useless.

Every student must have all articles which he desires to have washed, distinctly marked with his name and put up in a bundle together with his wash-book, otherwise they will not be sent to the laundry, and, if lost, no complaints will be heard.

No article of clothing will be suffered to remain in the dormitories, except on those days when wash is given out or received.

All books and papers against sound morals will be confiscated, and subject the owner and reader to severe punishment or expulsion.

The use of tobacco in any form is prohibited. But students over seventeen years of age are permitted to smoke at certain times and under proper restrictions, provided they have the written permission of their parents or guardians.

The use or introduction of intoxicants is forbidden under pain of expulsion.

Students are required to have light shoes or slippers for in-door wear exclusively.

Unless there are extraordinary reasons, letters may be written only on Saturdays and Sundays, and must invariably be handed unsealed to the Director. Such as fail to comply with this rule are suspected of unlawful correspondence, and may, according to circumstances, be expelled.

Correspondence with students who have been dismissed or who have left the College in bad standing is positively prohibited.

On the days fixed for receiving the Most Holy Sacrament all students who have already made their first Holy Communion are to approach.

Students who are discovered to exert bad influence, or habitually disregard the laws of the Institution, or endeavor to excite or promote a feeling of discontent or insubordination are not permitted to continue at the College.

The same course is pursued with a student who is found incorrigibly idle.

Finally, those who are rude, or coarse and vulgar, or immodest in their habits and conversation, or do not exhibit an honest and serious desire to comply with the regulations of the College, will, after repeated and fruitless admonitions, be dismissed.

Regulations

The next academic year will commence on Wednesday September 6th. A solemn Highmass will be celebrated in honor of the Holy Ghost to invoke the blessing of God for the ensuing year upon the labors of Professors and Students. It is very important that all students be present on the opening day.

Tuesday, Sept. 5th, is set apart for the examination of new students as also of those who in the past year may have failed to obtain the required average for ascending to a higher class. These should therefore report on that day.

The scholastic year consists of two sessions. The first begins with the academic year and ends on the last day of January. The second begins on the first of February and closes about the 20. of June. An examination of all the classes is held before Christmas, Easter, and at the end of the last session, and reports are sent to inform parents of the conduct and progress of their sons.

When a student presents himself for admission, which is granted at any time of the year, he is examined and placed in the class for which his attainments may fit him.

Applicants from other institutions are required to produce certificates as to their good moral character and their last class report.

Students desiring to advance to a higher class must be prepared to pass a satisfactory examination in all the studies prescribed for admission to, and already taken in the class to which they wish to be promoted.

A competent knowledge of the elements of English, Arithmetic, Geography, etc., is requisite for admission to the Classical as well as the Commercial Course.

Shorthand, Typewriting, Chemistry, Natural Philosophy, Music, Drawing, French, and German are optional studies.

Every student on entering should be provided with three suits of clothes — two for week-days and one for Sundays, an over-coat, two hats or caps, four shirts, four suits of underwear, eight pair of stockings, one dozen handkerchiefs, four towels, three pair of shoes or boots, a pair of rubbers or rubber-boots and all articles necessary for toilet. All linen, underwear, etc. are to be marked with the owner's name in full.

Clothing, or any other article needed during the year, may either be sent from home or procured by the College, provided a sufficient amount be advanced to cover the probable cost.

Students are not permitted to leave the College except for urgent reasons, and only at the request of parents or guardians. Such requests should be as rare as possible, since nothing can be more hurtful to the pupil's progress, or annoying to the teachers, than interruption of studies.

During visits of parents or relatives students are not permitted to miss their classes. Hence it is urgently requested that such visits be confined to holidays and the afternoons of Wednesdays and Saturdays.

All letters, papers, books and packages sent or received by students are subject to the inspection of the Director.

COURSES OF STUDIES

There are three distinct Courses of Studies—the Commercial, the Classical and Ecclesiastical — also the Grammar Department, a Preparatory School for beginners.

The Commercial Course offers a thorough general education and prepares young men for entering upon the usual business vocations for taking up the study of specialties, such as chemistry, civil-engineering, electricity, etc. It comprises three years.

The Classical Course comprises the three years Academic, three years Collegiate and two years of Philosophy. Students who pass through this Course achieve a thorough scientific and literary education, and become eminently fitted for taking up the study of theology, law or medicine.

The Ecclesiastical Course comprises three years after the completion of the Classical Course. Sacred Scriptures, Dogmatic and Moral Theology, Church History, Canon Law, Liturgy and Homiletics—these are the studies by which the candidate of the priesthood prepares himself for the arduous duties of his sacerdotal career.

ST. VINCENT SCHOLASTICATE

The Scholasticate,—which, studies excepted, is altogether distinct and separate from the College,—forms the preparatory Seminary for such as feel themselves called to become members of the Benedictine Order; hence, only those are received who intend to become Benedictines. The discipline is calculated to impress on the minds of the aspirants a due sense of the requirements of monastic life.

The Course of Studies is the Classical, and only those will be received who have already made their first Communion, and are sufficiently advanced to take up the studies of this course.

Application for admission must be made in the vacation months before the 15th of August, and not during the academic year.

No one will be admitted unless he can show his baptismal certificate and satisfactory papers from his pastor.

Consult pages 14 and 15.

For particulars, address:

The Rev. Director of Scholasticate,
St. Vincent Abbey,
Beatty P. O., Pa.
